Chairman Kosinski called the meeting to order at 3:00 p.m., Friday, September 7, 2007.

Agenda Item 1 - Open session for discussion and possible action regarding selection of candidates for the executive director position for initial interview.

Chairman Kosinski opened agenda item number 1 and explained that the procedure would be to go down the list of 19 candidates and determine which candidates should be recommended for an interview before this subcommittee next Friday, September 14, 2007.

Lengthy discussion ensued as the subcommittee members reviewed and considered each of the 19 candidates on the list and determined that there were 9 candidates that would be recommended for an interview on September 14, 2007.

Chairman Kosinski requested that each member of the subcommittee attend the September 14, 2007 subcommittee meeting in person at the Carson City Commission office in order to conduct the interviews. He then requested that Ms. Nunez contact the 9 candidates selected for an interview and schedule them with the appropriate amount of time in order to allow the subcommittee to end by noon or so.

Agenda Item 2 – Open session for public comment.

There were no members of the public present in either location; therefore, there was no public comment made.

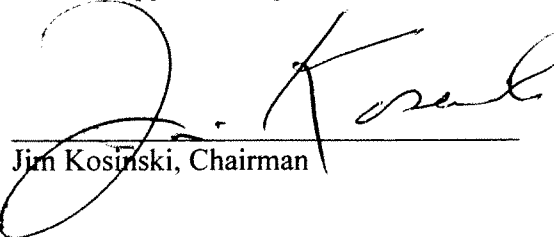

Chairman Kosinski adjourned the meeting at 3:45 p.m.
